

Saturday 10th November 2018

The Gough CAT Oceania Heavyweight Championship is an open event, not an invitational. A high level of competency is required to be competitive. Entrants must have competed at national level in Highland Games, athletics or strongman events. The field is limited to 12 competitors; if more entries are received the first event will be an elimination event with unsuccessful competitors being moved to compete in the Amateur competition.

The disciplines will consist of:

1. Hammer Throw (16lb and 22lb)
2. Sheaf (16lbs)
3. Stone Putt (18lbs)
4. Weight for distance (28lbs)
5. Weight for height (56lbs)
6. Caber Toss (67kg)
7. Hororata Stones (90 to 140kgs)
8. Farmers Walk (100kg each side)

Total cash prize pool of $5,930 NZD. Split as follows:

Overall:	$1500 plus the Oceania Heavyweight Championship Belt and a Hororata Highland Games trophy (yours to keep)	Fifth:	$600
Second:	$1200 plus a silver medal	Sixth:	$400
Third:	$1000 plus a bronze medal	Seventh:	$200
Fourth:	$800	Eighth:	$100
		Ninth:	$80
		Tenth:	$50

There is no entry fee for this event but competitors must meet the required standards and the Hororata Highland Games reserves the right to decline an entry. Competitors will all receive a unique tee shirt individualised with each Oceania Heavyweight Competitors name printed on the back. It is compulsory competitors wear the tee shirt. Please complete the attached entry form by the 5th October 2018.

The competition is run under the Scottish Highland Games Association Rules with the exception of the Caber which is run under the New Zealand Championship rules (Waipu). A copy of the rules can be provided. Please note: to be eligible for prize money and for records competitors must compete in all disciplines (barring injury).

Competitors are fully catered for while attending the Hororata Highland Games with airport meet and greet and first class hosted accommodation within the Hororata district. The local community enjoy this interaction as much as competitors do! Competitors are welcomed into the Tartan Club marquee for the post Games function to mix with officials, volunteers and VIP's. You are responsible for your own travel costs to Christchurch.

Gough CAT is again sponsoring the heavy events at the Hororata Highland Games. There is natural synergy between the Gough CAT brand and the Heavy events; power, strength and being at the top of your game to succeed.

Hororata Highland Games – Competitor Entry Form Disclaimer

By submitting an entry form you acknowledge that:

1. You have read and understood the relevant competition details and rules and the general competition terms and conditions of the Championship.
2. You acknowledge that as a competitor you compete at your own risk and your safety is your sole responsibility.

General Competition Terms and Conditions

1. The Hororata Highland Games (Event) is an event promoted and run by the Hororata Community Trust (Trust).
2. Submitting an entry form to compete at any competition at the Event constitutes acceptance of these terms and conditions as well as the Trust's general ticket terms and conditions.
3. Where an entry form is submitted on behalf of a team comprising more than one person, the person submitting that entry form warrants and represents that they are authorised to submit the entry on behalf of all persons in the team and all persons in that team will be bound by these terms and conditions.
4. Entry forms for entry to any competition at the Event must be received by the Trust by 5:00pm on the date specified in the relevant competition details and rules on the competition page of this website. No responsibility is accepted for incomplete, lost, or misdirected entries.
5. All competitors will comply with all directions and instructions given by the Trust or the judges during the competition.
6. The judges' decision in relation to any competition at the Event is final and no correspondence, or discussion, will be entered into.
7. Any competitor may be disqualified by the judges for not complying with the rules for the competition or any directions and instructions given by the Trust or the judges (as determined by the judges).
8. The judges reserve the right to determine a winner for any competition if a clear winner is not determined in accordance with the rules for that competition.
9. The judges reserve the right to move competitors into another category (i.e. between the Oceania and Amateur championship) if they deem necessary.
10. No responsibility is accepted by the Trust for any injury, damage, or loss to any person or property that may occur during any competition at the Event, during practices, or otherwise in relation to the Event. The care, safety, and wellbeing of children or minors taking part will be the sole responsibility of their parents or caregivers.
11. Each person entering or participating in any competition at the Event warrants (and where minors, their parents or caregivers warrant in relation to those minors) to the Trust that they are in good health and have no medical or other conditions that might be affected by participation in the competition.
12. The Trust reserves the right to require that evidence of age and eligibility be produced by any competition entrants.
13. The Trust reserves the right to terminate any competition at the Event without notice at any time.
14. Any prizes offered in connection with any competition at the Event are not transferable and cannot be exchanged for cash.
15. Information and all promotional or advertising material about the Event and competitions, entries for competitions at the Event, and prizes form part of and are subject to these terms & conditions.
16. All entries become property of the Trust. The information collected in this form will be held securely by the Trust at its offices in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993 and will be used for the purpose of the prize draw and for publicity, marketing and promotional purposes.
17. Entry into any competition at the Event constitutes the consent by the entrant to the Trust using the details and results of the competition and the competitor's name and image and photography for publicity, communications, and marketing and promotional purposes.
